Section 9.01 REGULAR MEETINGS

Regular meeting of the Board shall be held within the State of Colorado no less than four times per year at such place and on such date each year as the Board shall establish. Notice to the Board of any regular meeting shall be given in writing or by email at least five (5) business days in advance unless all Directors shall, in writing or by email, waive the requirements for notice and need not specify the business to be transacted.

Section 9.02 SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President of the Association or at the written request of five (5) Directors. The President or Directors calling the special meeting may fix the place for holding the special meeting. Notice of any special meeting shall be given in writing at least five business (5) days in advance unless all Directors shall, in writing or by email, waive the requirements for notice and shall specify the business to be transacted at the special meeting.

Section 9.03 ELECTRONIC MEETINGS

Members of the Board may participate in any regular, executive or special meeting of the Board by telephone or email by which all persons participating in the meeting may see or hear all communications. Participation in the meeting pursuant to this section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. Notice of any meeting to be held with one or more members participating by telephone must be given to each Director not less than five (5) days prior to the date of such meeting.

Section 9.04 ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING

Any action required which may be taken at a meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if the consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all directors. This consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board.
Section 9.05 NOTICE WAIVER
Whenever any notice of a meeting of the Board is required to be given under provisions of these Bylaws, such notice shall be given by any means reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the director at his/her address as it appears on the records of the Association and, unless otherwise provided in the Bylaws, at least five (5) days before the date designated for such meeting. Notice shall be deemed given when the same is deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid, or delivered by email, hand, telegraph, fax or overnight express. Every notice of a special meeting shall set forth the business to be transacted at, and the purpose of, such special meeting. Presence at any meeting without objection shall also constitute waiver of any required notice.

ARTICLE X. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY
Meetings of the Association and its Board of Directors and the conduct of its affairs shall be governed by the laws of Colorado and the United States of America, the Articles of Incorporation not inconsistent with the foregoing, these Bylaws not inconsistent with either of the foregoing and the rules set out in the current "Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised" to the extent they are applicable and are not inconsistent with any of the foregoing authorities or any special rules of order adopted from time to time by this Association.

ARTICLE XI. QUORUM
Section 11.01 BOARD of DIRECTORS
A majority of the voting membership of the Board shall constitute a quorum and shall have the power to transact business.

Section 11.02 ASSOCIATION
All voting members of the Association in good standing who are present at the Annual Association Meeting shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XII. DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, and EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
The Board of Directors may, from time to time, designate its members to assist any one or more of the officers in the conduct of the duties with a majority vote. It may, in addition, secure an Executive Director to be responsible for central office functions, the day-to-day operations of the Association, supervision of all staff and such other activities as may be described in the Executive Directors' position description developed by the Board. The Executive Director may hire such persons on a full or part time basis on terms and conditions including salary or other compensation that is fair and reasonable to conduct the affairs of the Association in accordance with Board direction. No contracted labor or employee of the Association may, while contracted or employed by the Association, serve as a Director of the Association. The Board Directors will develop guidelines regarding contractors or employees hiring, performance review, and termination.
ARTICLE XIII  Indemnification
The Association shall indemnify any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) by reason of the fact that such person, or person's testator or intestate, is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association or serves or served any-other enterprise at the request of the Association, against all expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, except in relation to matters in which such person shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for intentional wrongdoing or gross misconduct in the performance of a duty, to the full extent permitted by the Colorado Nonprofit Corporations Act. The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other right of indemnification to which any person may be entitled, including without limitation under any statute, contract or resolution of the Board and indemnification under any policy of insurance.

ARTICLE XIV. Insurance
The Association may purchase and maintain insurance in such amounts as the Board determine to be appropriate on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent to insure against any liability asserted against such person by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association or serves or served any other enterprise at the request of the Association. The Association is also authorized to purchase and maintain insurance on its own behalf against any liability it may have.

ARTICLE XV. Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year.

ARTICLE XVI. Bylaws
The Association may adopt Bylaws.
Section 16.01 Amendments to the Bylaws shall be drafted by a committee chaired by the Past-President. Bylaw changes will then be reviewed by the Board Directors. Bylaw changes will then be accepted with a majority vote of Association members voting. Bylaw changes ballots will be sent with Board of Director election ballots.

ARTICLE XVII. Audit
Accounts of the Association maintained by the Executive Director must be audited by an audit committee prior to the Annual Association Meeting.
Article XVIII.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
