

CWMA 2022 Awards Nomination Form

The CWMA Awards Committee is ready for your nominations!

CWMA membership is an elite group of individuals across the State of Colorado. Each year we honor some of our most amazing members. Please review the awards below to nominate a worthy individual for one or more awards. The winners are announced at the Winter Training.

Please check the box(es) for the awards you are nominating the individual.

The Newcomer Award

This award recognizes a 'newcomer' who has advanced the objectives of weed management through the creation of a new program or support of an existing weed program. This individual has demonstrated leadership and initiative in furthering management programs and objectives and will have done so without regard to budget, support or other obstacles. This individual may work for a city, county, park, state or federal agency, private organization or commercial company and has been in the industry for less than 2 years.

Lifetime Service Award

This award recognizes individuals who have, over time, demonstrated outstanding leadership and dedication to CWMA. This includes active participation in Association committees, the Board of Directors or Leadership Team. The award winner must be a member or have been a past member.

Partnership Award

This award recognizes local groups or organizations that have advanced the objectives of weed management through technique, team efforts, and communication or education efforts. This award recognizes an effort that serves as an example to assist weed managers in meeting their integrated weed management goals. This award may be presented to members or someone outside CWMA.

Weed Manager of the Year

This award goes to an individual working in any facet of weed management, who has done an outstanding job to further weed management in Colorado. This individual may work for any city, county, state or federal agency, or commercial company. This award goes to the individual who has best achieves success without regard to budget, agency and citizen support, or other obstacles. This award may be presented to a member or someone outside of CWMA.
